Project KARE Investigates Missing Person

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Project KARE, and the Edmonton Police Service are seeking public assistance in locating Delores Dawn BROWER.

Delores, a missing person, is described as a 33 year old Metis woman with long brown hair and brown eyes. She is 5'3' tall and weighs approximately 110 pounds. Delores was last seen on 118 Avenue and 70th Street by Project KARE members on the 13th of May, 2004 at 05:40 in the morning. At that time, she was hitch-hiking, attempting to get a ride west-bound on the avenue. Delores was wearing a black sweater and black jeans and her hair was down and long. She has scarring on both her left and right forearms. Delores also goes by the nickname "Spider" and was engaged in a high risk lifestyle, in the sex trade industry on 118th Avenue.

The Project KARE investigators and insurgence team have worked in concert with the Edmonton Police Service as well as with other community social agencies in an effort to locate Delores. Numerous efforts have been made to locate Delores but have met with negative results. Project

KARE and the Edmonton Police Service are regarding this case as a missing person where foul play is suspected and, therefore, are pursuing all avenues of investigation.

Police are requesting that anyone who may have any information on the location of Delores BROWER or who may have seen her after the 15th of May, 2004, to call 495-KARE (5273) locally or toll free at 1-877-412-KARE (5273), or the Edmonton Police Service at 423-4567 or CrimeStoppers, toll free, at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS). If Ms. BROWER becomes aware of our interest, she is encouraged to contact the investigators.

A media availability, with a statement from Ms. BROWER's family, will be hosted at RCMP "K" Division 11140 109 Street, this morning at 10:30 am. A copy of this press release and other information about Project KARE is available at <http://www.kare.ca>.
